Excerpt: . pomegranate -- just where the little girl, who a few minutes ago passed us singing, is seated! 197 ll. -- Noon. Over Orcana. The House of Jules, who crosses its threshold with Phene: she is silent, on which Jules begins. Do not die, Phene! I am yours now, you Are mine now; let Fate reach me how she likes, If you ll not die: so, never die! Sit here -- My workroom s single seat: I over-lean This length of hair and lustrous front; they turn 5 Like an entire flower upward: eyes, lips, last Your chin -- no, last your throat turns: tis their scent Pulls down my face upon you! Nay, look ever This one way till I change, grow you -- I could Change into you, beloved! You by me, And I by you; this is your hand in mine,...
