CANDIDREAMS: I REMEMBER THE BEGINNING

Little Girl Productions, LLC., United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .General Information: Candidreams: I Remember the Beginning is a collection of individual poems woven together to tell a story. Like getting two books in one, readers can read the book cover to cover for the story. The reader can then peruse the individual poems according to their mood, situation or day. I call Candidreams: I Remember the Beginning my wake up call or my discovery book. As a young adult, I sadly find myself in a spiritually dark and desolate place, one not reflective of the manner I was raised and not reflective of my gifts and potential. I am desperate to recall exactly what happened to me, of all the horrible situations I endured, what changed me from an innocent young girl so full of hopes and dreams to one governed by sadness and despair. I revisit my childhood to discover when and how did this darkness overtake me. Back Cover Information: Candidreams presents a collection of poems chronicling author Candie Ferald's faith and determination not to allow negative circumstances to define her. Though raised in the church, Ferald feels God's unconditional love has somehow bypassed her. Angered by some of the situations of her young life—including death, painful relationships and parental issues—she quickly discovers how to escape herself through sex and drugs. She soon finds herself on the edge of self-destruction, and in this state, she promises her dying grandfather that she will reclaim her life. As she begins that process, Ferald is extremely candid in retelling both the hopeful and tragic events of her journey. We have all had daunting experiences that have challenged our faith and dreams, and we all...
