Publisher: People's Education Press; 3rd edition (July 1. 2007). we are trying to do in the revision process of the modern Chinese history of education (3rd edition) the following points. First. position. viewpoint and method of historical materialism to explore the emergence and development of Chinese modern education. from education and political and economic interaction and the collision and blend of Chinese and foreign cultural and educational perspective to examine the process of Chinese modern education. in determined on the basis of four basic clues for the development of modern education: First. shake the old education of feudalism. the improvements and the form was abolished; capitalist education. initiation. development and the contradictions and struggles of feudal education ; the intrusion of the imperialist enslavement education. the collusion of the expansion of the backward feudal China education; the broad masses of the people against the reactionary forces of cultural and educational struggle. Secondly. education as a social phenomenon. with relative independence. the logic and laws of their own development. Based on this understanding. Chinese Modern Education (3rd edition) as a landmark of China's modern school system (Educational System). divided into two books. compiled exposition of China's modern educational system before the establishment of educational practice and thought. under the Code discusses educational practice and thought after the establishment of the modern educational system in China. Third. as far as possible to absorb the history of Chinese education in recent years. new research results. especially on Foreign Affairs Education. Church Education. Restoration of Education. part of the contents of the late Qing Dynasty. New Deal period and the Revolution of 1911 education were added...
