The tremulous Nondescript was the first to sense it and he drew in his petals and shrunk almost to nothing. Billion retired at once into his shell, and became part of the seething and all objects, and added to the fullness of their weird beauty. A blue crab passed by, and then an eel. Meantime the hoarse song of the sea robins could be heard where they sought shelter in the trunks of the oyster sloops that lay peacefully at anchor. Billion was now again on the march, for most things sub-marine are awake and active in the bright moonlight. He had reached a pleasant valley in the bed of the Kills, the floor of which was of pure white sand, each crystal shining like a diamond. It is at most times beautiful below the water, but...
