Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Memorial Addresses Upon the Life and Character of Leland Stanford: Late a Senator From the State of California, Delivered in the Senate of the United States, Saturday, September 16, 1893 Mr. White of California. Mr President, another member of this body has passed from among us. his term of office not accomplished. it is meet that we who have been his associates should record our sorrow and pay fitting tributes of respect to his memory. I shall not enter upon an examination of the life and services of the late Leland Stanford. I am apprised that other Senators, long his companions here and elsewhere, desire to signalize their regard by a review of his career. It may not be amiss, however, for me to contribute a brief expression. Senator Stanford was thoroughly identified with the interests of California. His relations to that State and to her progress will be fully detuled by my able colleague and others who are to follow me. He was not only twice elected to the Senate of the United States by the California Legislature, but he was also chosen by the people to the high station of governor. He was thus honored at a time when it was necessary that strong and wise counsel should prevail, and the history of our commonwealth discloses that Governor Stanford was not only loyal, but that his policy was such as to win the applause of all well-disposed men, regardless of party affiliation. He had faith in the American Union, and conducted his administration in accordance with his belief. In the pursuit of the objects which he desired to attain, Senator Stanford was diligent,...
